

Static homepage with links to 5 other pages at top.

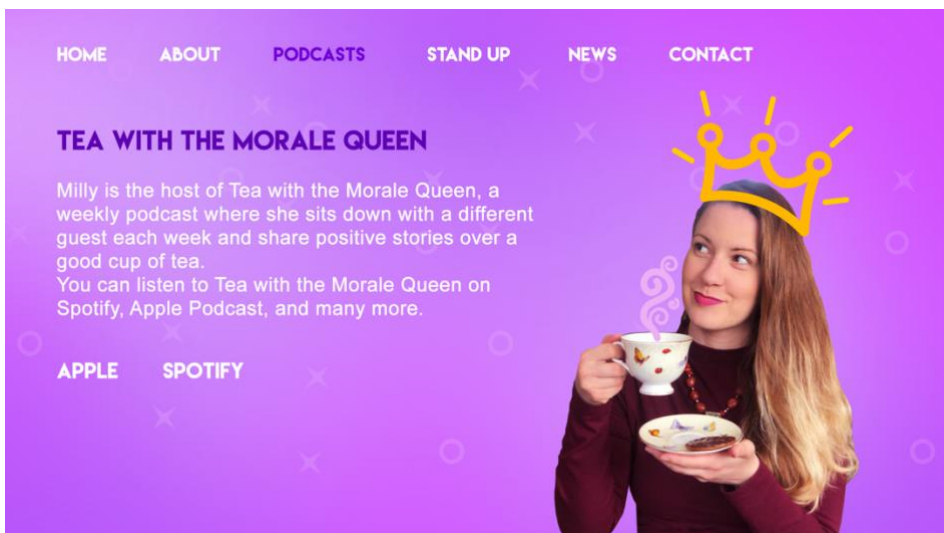

Links to social media and contact in footer (not featured here) will be the same across all pages

Image of comedian to change when mouse hovers over it (purely aesthetic)

About page will include different image (needs to be taken and edited)

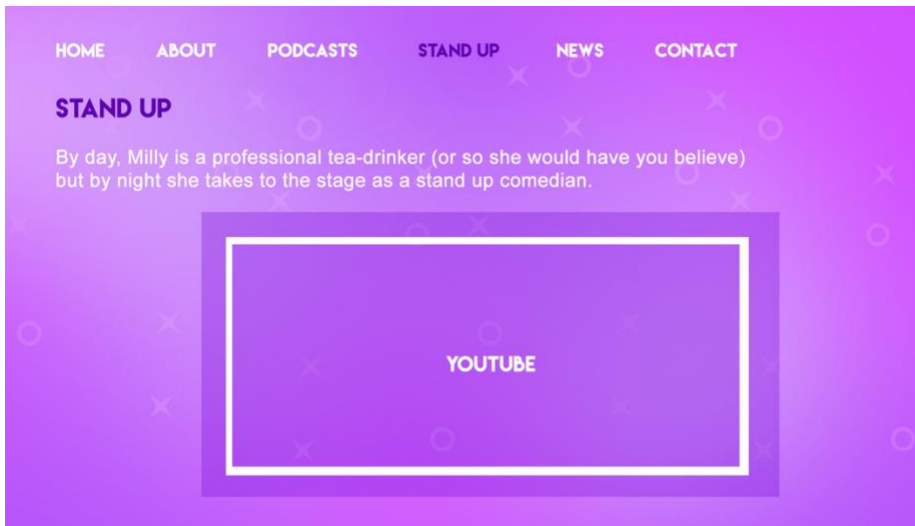

About text will be contained in box with scroll function to move up and down.

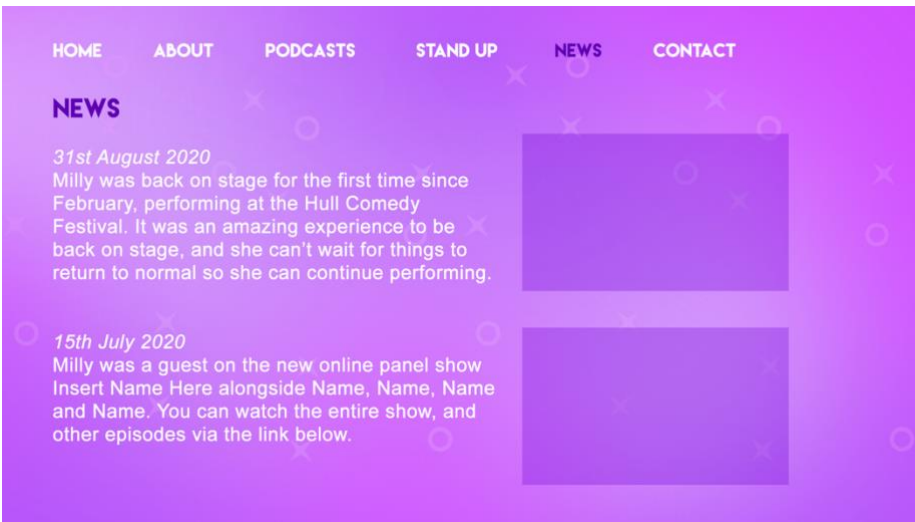

Podcasts page will include different picture (needs to be taken and edited)

Links to external sources for podcast.

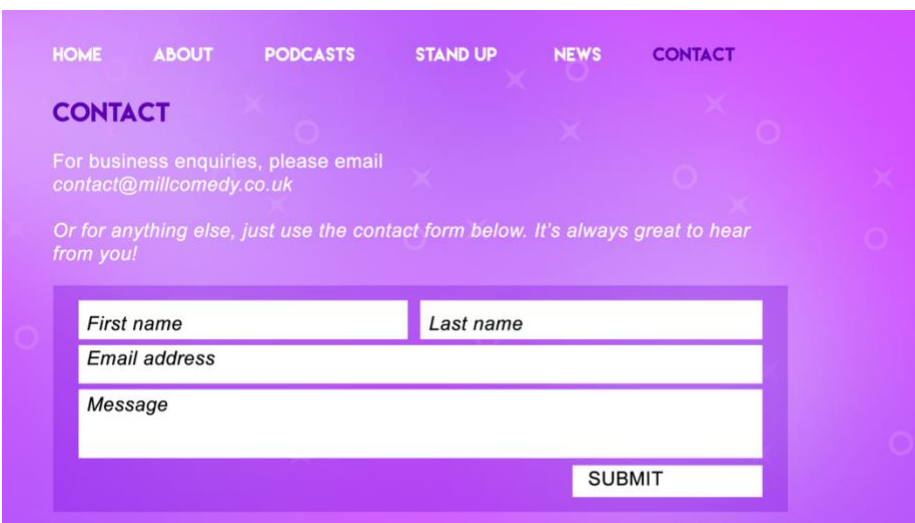

Possible inclusion of a Spotify widget to allow user to listen via current page.

Built in YouTube videos showcasing recorded stand up.

Scroll down list of news items with accompanying images (not shown here) and various links to external sources.

Built in contact form with space for first name, last name, email address, message and submit button.

Social media links will also be referenced here below the contact form.